

Court Square provides professional and strategic consulting services in information technology, business processes and service management using best practices, including ITIL and PMI. We also provide life science subject matter expertise with a range of technology, quality and audit services.

Founded in 1995

Court Square provides professional consulting services in strategic information technology, business processes and service management using best practices, including ITIL and PMI. We also provide life science subject matter expertise with a range of technology, quality and audit services.

Court Square approaches every engagement as either a disciplined project with milestones and defined goals or as a managed service arrangement. Our Good Systems Practice® methodology combines an ITIL framework with best practices defined by the Project Management Institute (PMI). We have successfully supported clients in a number of industries but our prime areas of expertise include Life Sciences, Financial Services and other regulated industries.

Our lines of service are supported by seasoned business and technology consultants as well as subject matter experts with direct experience in the industries they support. Services areas include:
